Star City's Village Steakhouse will be closed following a post on the restaurant's social media. The last night of the restaurant is Saturday, July 13. According to a statement from the Rayne Bow family, the Village Steakhouse will continue to operate regularly at night and at night for the next seven weeks. Current owners are interested in finding a new owner to take over the restaurant. If you know someone who wants to continue the village steakhouse's heritage, please contact us. We would love to see new ownership continue, according to the statement. The Village Steakhouse was recently selected as one of AY Magazine's 100 Arkansas restaurants, so you can try it before you die. It is sad to announce the closing of the Village Steakhouse. Our closing decision... Posted by Village Steakhouse on Friday, May 24, 2019 we had dinner here last night. It wasn't too busy, but it took me a few minutes to sit down. We were moved to a table in the bar area, and it soon became clear why. Our waitress was working behind bars, so her attention ... Mainly the bar itself was in the patrons sitting. As a result, she was not very attentive to us.  What kind of manager assigns people to wait for the table even for bartenders? Now let's talk about food. While we waited for the spot, we perused various local awards hanging in the entrance area. Given that this place has won all these food and customer awards, I was expecting the food to be of the highest level. We ordered to start frying conch. They were good. Unfortunately, they were the only good thing we had. I had a scallop wrapped in bacon with baked sweet potatoes. Bacon burned and sweet potatoes were almost warm. Moreover, we had to chase the waitress (not ours) for butter! Who gives potatoes without butter? My husband ordered a prime lip. Prime ribs are rare, but his ribs did well. Don't know what kind of steakhouse cooks prime ribs? We decided to make up for the disappointment of the main dish and decided to make up for it. We nurtured bananas and got chocolate lava cakes. The cake was dry and the chocolate sauce inside was cold. Lava Cake Warm, so when the cake is cut, the inside sauce permeates. Banana discipline was nothing like fostering real bananas. It is kneaded and fried banana nuggets with vanilla ice cream. All in all, it's a disappointing meal.
